LEGISLATIVE POWER
LAW No. 82/91

THAT MODIFIES AND EXPANDS LAW N 11.266/87 OF THE CIVIL STATUS REGISTRY.
THE CONGRESS OF THE PARAGUAYAN NATION ENACTS WITH THE FORCE OF LAW

Article 1.- 1Articles 14 and 17 of Law No. 11,266/87 are amended and expanded, and their text is worded as follows:

"Art.14.- The Directorate of the Civil Registry shall collect for the services it provides, the fees and tariffs established in this Law according to the following scale:
a) For birth registration, free of charge, registrations made after six months and up to one year will pay the equivalent of 10% (ten percent) of a minimum legal daily wage for various unspecified activities in the Capital of the Republic, and those made after one year, 15% (fifteen percent) of the same equivalent in daily wage;
b) For the act of celebrating marriage, one minimum legal daily wage for various unspecified activities in the Capital of the Republic. Marriages celebrated outside the office premises on non-working days, at the request of the interested parties, 4 (four) minimum daily wages as a per diem for the Justice of the Peace or Registry official;
c) For registration of each death, at no cost. For the registration of judicial documents and documents from another jurisdiction, legalizations, 10% (ten percent) of the equivalent of a minimum legal daily wage for various unspecified activities in the Capital of the Republic;
d) For each certified copy of documents issued, the equivalent of 5% (five percent) of a minimum legal daily wage for various unspecified activities in the Capital of the Republic; and,
e) For birth registrations and recognitions made outside the office, at the request of the interested parties, a per diem of 1 (one) minimum daily wage for various unspecified activities in the Capital of the Republic will be charged to the applicants, for the authorizing official."
"Article 17.- The collection of these fees will be formalized with the issuance of stamps specially authorized for this purpose. The items of travel expenses or tariffs will be under receipt provided by the Central Office of the Civil Registry."

Article 2.- 1Article 16 of Law No. 11,266/87 is hereby repealed

Article 3.- 1Communicate to the Executive Branch.
Approved by the Honorable Senate on October 30, 1991 and by the Honorable Chamber of Deputies, enacting the Law on November 22, 1991.

José A. Moreno Ruffinelli
President, Honorable Chamber of Deputies

Gustavo Díaz de Vivar
President, Honorable Chamber of Senators

Luis Guanes Gondra
Parliamentary Secretary

Artemio Vera
Parliamentary Secretary

Asunción, December 11, 1991

Let it be considered a Law of the Republic, let it be published and inserted in the Official Registry

Andrés Rodríguez
President of the Republic

Hugo Estigarribia Elizeche
Minister of Justice and Labor